

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITY'S LAW CLINIC NETWORK
2017 CONFERENCE
GLASGOW CALEDONIAN UNIVERSITY
7TH JUNE

Access to Justice: Beyond the Campus

10.00 - 10.30 Registration & Coffees

10.30 - 11.15 Mungo Bovey QC - Keynote Address

11.15 - 11.30 Q&A

11.30- 12.30 Parallel Workshops

1. Beyond the Campus: Expanding our Reach

A discussion on how law clinics can utilise technology to improve access to justice in more remote areas where people are unable to access advice services.

2. Mock Employment Tribunal

Employment Law Team of the Year, Blackadders, will conduct a mock tribunal allowing advisors to understand the necessary preparation and case management involved and see how to conduct a tribunal appearance.

3. Legal Marketing: Increasing Awareness of Law Clinics

Brian Inkster on how Law Clinics can grow their brand and increase awareness of the services they offer. Tips on digital marketing and branding in the legal sphere.

12.30- 1.15 Lunch

1.15 - 2.15 Plenary Session – Represented v Unrepresented in the Scottish Courts

Hosted by Dr Andrew Tickell, this session will involve a panel discussion on access to justice

2.15 - 3.15 Parallel Workshops

1. Challenging the Status Quo: Embracing Tech for Better Practice?

A panel discussion hosted by Arlene McDaid of Legal Hackers Scotland. The panel will include Philip Hannay, Principal at Cloch Solicitors, along with two speakers TBC.

2. Street Law: Beyond the Playground

Rob Marrs: A tech themed street law session.

3. Law Clinic Troubleshooting

A forum for Law Clinic Directors to share best practice. David Buchanan-Cook from the Scottish Legal Complaints Commission will join this session to discuss how Law Clinics can effectively deal with complaints.

3.15- 3.30 Coffee

3.30- 3.40 Martin Campbell, Head of Fitness to Practice, Scottish Social Services Council

The Scottish Social Services Council represent approx 150,000 people. Martin will explore how SULCN can facilitate their members accessing justice.

3.40 - 4.10 Judge Shona Simon, Employment Tribunals (Scotland) President

Judge Simon will discuss her experience of how people access justice and the difference that free representation services such as law clinics can have in helping people achieve justice.

4.10 - 4.30 Donald Nicholson OBE - Law Clinics: Community Service or Student Education? (Again, but this time it's personal)

4.30 - 5.00 Drinks and Departures

